

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Your willingness to serve as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist, reflects not only response to your Baptismal call to serve the people of God, but a commitment to Christ as you share in the preaching, teaching and leading aspects of the church.

By offering the Eucharist, you recognize the Body of Christ in those to whom you minister and ultimately you act as the Body of Christ by fully participating in the life of the parish and the wider community. Your willingness to commit to a monthly schedule, to prepare properly for your service and to arrive on time and dressed appropriately for your assigned Mass, further reflects that commitment.

To serve as a Eucharistic Minister serving the congregation at Mass, contact the Mass Coordinator of the Mass you regularly attend (see coordinators) or Fr. John at the Parish Office.

To serve as a Homebound Minister where you bring Communion to the sick or shut-ins: Contact Kerin Buntin at the Parish Office.
