The main entrance to the Narthex is to be clear of materials hanging from the walls. The Parish video display is located on the south entrance wall. The northwest corner may be used for bulletin boards (Religious Education and bulleting announcements) and literature display. The Youth Ministry bulletin board is also permitted in that section.

There is to be no soliciting or “selling” inside the church at any time. Such business may be conducted, with the permission of the Pastor, outside the church at the appropriate entrances before and after Sunday Masses.
